MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
5. ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (42 U.S.C. § 16901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
6. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

DEFENDANT: STEVEN THORPE
CASE NUMBER: 4:15CR00084-001 BSM

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

14) The defendant will participate under the guidance and supervision of the probation office in a substance abuse treatment program which may include drug and alcohol testing, outpatient counseling, and residential treatment. The defendant will abstain from the use of alcohol during supervision. The defendant will pay for the cost of treatment at the rate of $10 per session, with the total cost not to exceed $40 per month, based on ability to pay as determined by the probation office. In the event the defendant is financially unable to pay for the cost of treatment, the co-pay requirement will be waived.

15) The defendant must submit his person and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects to a search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or probation office with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of probation or unlawful conduct by the person, and by any probation office in the lawful discharge of the office's supervision functions pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 3583(d).

16) The probation office will provide state officials with all information required under any sexual predator and sexual offender notification and registration statutes and may direct the defendant to report to these agencies personally for required additional processing, such as an interview and assessment, photographing, fingerprinting, polygraph testing, and DNA collection.

17) The defendant must participate in sex offender treatment under the guidance and supervision of the probation office and abide by the rules, requirements, and conditions of the treatment program, including submitting to polygraph testing to aid in the treatment and supervision process. The defendant must pay for the cost of treatment, including polygraph sessions, at the rate of $10 per session, with the total cost not to exceed $40 per month, based on ability to pay as determined by the probation office. In the event the defendant is financially unable to pay for the cost of treatment, the co-pay requirement will be waived.

18) The defendant must not purchase, possess, subscribe, view, listen to, or use any media forms containing pornographic images or sexually oriented materials including but not limited to written, audio, and visual depictions, such as pornographic books, magazines, literature, videos, CDs, DVDs, digital media, or photographs. This includes materials containing "sexually explicit conduct" as defined in 18 U.S.C. 2256(2).

19) The defendant must not own or use any computer or electronic device with Internet access at any location, other than using a third party's computer to apply for employment at that party's business, without permission from the probation officer. This includes access through any Internet service provider, bulletin board system, gaming system, device, or console, online social networking activities, any public or private computer network system, cell phone or any other remote device capable of Internet access. The defendant must not access the Internet by any device or means that is not susceptible to monitoring by the probation office.

20) The defendant must agree to the installation of computer monitoring software and hardware approved by the probation office. The defendant must abide by all rules and requirements of the program and must consent to unannounced examinations of all computer equipment internal and external storage devices which may include retrieval and copying of all data from the computer(s) and any internal and external peripherals and/or removal of such equipment for the purpose of conducting a more thorough inspection by the probation office or probation service representative.

21) The defendant must not participate in online gaming. The defendant must not utilize or maintain any memberships or accounts of any social networking website or websites that allow minor children membership, a profile, an account, or webpage without approval of the probation office. This includes websites that explicitly prohibit access or use by sex offenders.

22) The defendant must not directly or indirectly contact the victim(s) by any means, including in person, by mail, electronically, telephonically, or via third parties. If any contact occurs, you must immediately leave the area of contact and report the contact to the probation office.

ADDITIONAL STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

23) The defendant must not have direct contact with any child he knows or reasonably should know to be under the age of 18, including your own children, without the permission of the probation officer. If the defendant does have any direct contact with any child he knows or reasonably should know to be under the age of 18, including his own children, without the permission of the probation officer, the defendant must report this contact to the probation officer within 24 hours. Direct contact includes written communication, in-person communication, or physical contact. Direct contact does not include incidental contact during ordinary daily activities in public places.

24) The defendant must not associate with or have any contact with convicted sex offenders unless in a therapeutic setting and approved by the probation office.

25) The defendant must not date or befriend anyone who has a child or children under age 18 without notification of the third party and verification by the probation office.

26) The defendant must not frequent or reside within 2,000 feet of locations frequented by persons under the age of 18, such as schools, playgrounds, daycare centers, theme parks, theaters, community centers, or water parks.

27) The defendant must not reside in a residence where a minor child also resides.
